Coming Back

Mitch King

And I love the way you call me,
And I love the way you call my name,
And I feel that I'm coming under your spell,
And I love the way you speak my name girl.

And I'm coming back,
And I'm coming back to who I am.

And I feel that I stepped on the same road train,
Going back and forth again to the place I started in,
And I love the way you call me,
And I love the way you speak my name girl.

And I'm coming back,
And I'm coming to who I am.

And I'm coming back,
And I'm coming back to who I am.
And I'm coming back to who I am.
And I'm coming back to who I am.
