

Write a Song

William Murphy

How do I know it's time to write a song?
I've been talking to the Lord all day long
How do I know it's time to sing my song?
I've been listening, I've been hearing all day long
Chorus:
Here's my song, I will sing it all day long
Here's my song, I will sing it all day long
How do I know it's time to write a song?
I've been talking to the Lord all day long
How will I know it's time to sing my song?
I've been listening, I've been hearing all day long
Chorus I will sing a song that keeps your intention every time I mention your name
I will raise a song so You'll listen
I'll never be the same
Repeat Chorus How do I know it's time to bless your Name
I've been fighting for my joy
And my situation won't change
Chorus Interlude This is my story, This is my song
Your song is my song, It's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Your song is my song, it's my favorite one
Coda:
How do I know it's time to write my song
