Sad Songs

Keith Whitley

So sad, there's another sad song, oh yeah
Sick and tired of sitting in this,
Staring at the man in the mirror
Ever since that she left
I felt a beat down in my chest heart
Something it cause I can't remove it,
It's so hot you get to it
And hit in the club won't do it

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs
I'm so alone no one's here but these battles
I'm on sad songs, sad songs

Shouldn't have got up on my knee yeah
Make you feel like you're the only one that I needed
Girl I gave you my heart for the keeping
All the love I put in your heart was deleted, yeah

Baby you took advantage, look at me damaged
It's not how we planned it, yeah
The light's upon, no one's around, trying Ãƒ?Ã‚¢?Ãƒ?Ã‚¦ all about
The tears drove down my face, time just won't erase

What we have ain't come back,
Stuck in the past what the, was that?
Girl ambitious why did you quit on?

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs
I'm so alone no one's here but these battles
I'm on sad songs, sad songs

And the melody that I tender play, started to play when you left
And they key of loneliness I can't resist hoping for your best
I just know that the door closes when you leave
Only thing here is these memories and the sad songs haunting me

I'm in this empty room playing my piano
Singing nothing but sad songs, sad songs

I'm so alone no one's here but these battles
I'm on sad songs, sad songs

Sad sad sad sad songs
Sad sad sad sad songs
Sad sad sad sad songs

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by STALNECKER, CHRISTIAN / AKINWANDE, AKINTUNDE / NORTEY, JEFFREY / DEBARGE, EL Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/