

Nothing Hurts Now (Dj Arti-Fix instrumental)

Magnet

There was a time you made me believe that I'd receive Something that would hold and wouldn't leave me cold
And there was a line you made me cross
So the two of us would have the strength to bare the crosses we couldn't share But nothing hurts now, that didn't hurt before
So I won't pretend that it was the end of the world
Cause nothing hurts now
No There was a time I made you smile and for a while I was beautiful to you, I was beautiful like you
But these things often pass and for you they just wouldn't last
So I was first to know when you had to go
