You're No Different

Ozzy Osbourne

How many times can you put me down?
'Til in your heart you realize
If you choose to criticize, you choose your enemies
Everything that I say and do
In your eyes is always wrong
Tell me where do I belong in a sick society?
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
Look at yourself instead of looking at me
With accusation in your eyes
Do you want me crucified for my profanity?
Concealing your crimes behind a grandeur of lies
Tell me where do I begin?
If you think you're without sin be the first to cast the stone
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me

You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
Can't you see? Can't you see?
You're no different to me
Won't you see? Won't you see?
You're no different to me
Living my life in a way that I choose
You say I should apologize
Is that envy in your eyes reflecting jealousy?
Tell me the truth and I'll admit to my guilt
If you'll try and understand
Is that blood that's on your hand from your democracy?
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
You're no different to me yeah
You're no different, no different to me
