

Lucid Dream

Owl City

[Verse 1]

I am a light sleeper
But I am a heavy dreamer
My imagination gives me wings
And I can go anywhere[Pre-Chorus]
And when I wander away
To some other place
I'm suddenly there
Way up in the air
Where passenger trains
Catch fire and fill the sky with flames
And that black rabbit of death
Wakes up in a breath
Of beautiful dreams
My heartache, it seems
So terribly vain
Where fire and diamonds fall like rain

[Chorus]

Do you believe
In endless miracles?
Do you believe
In the impossible?
Do you believe
Sleep is a time machine?
Do you believe
In curiosity?
Do you believe
In what you cannot see?
Do you believe
Life is a lucid dream?
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you know them by heart
Life is a lucid dream

[Verse 2]

Such is the path of a dreamer
I find my way by moonlight
My imagination gives me wings
And I can go anywhere[Pre-Chorus]

And when I wander away
To some other place
I'm suddenly there
Way up in the air
Where passenger trains
Catch fire and fill the sky with flames
And that black rabbit of death
Wakes up in a breath
Of beautiful dreams
My heartache, it seems
So terribly vain
Where fire and diamonds fall like rain[Chorus]
Do you believe
In endless miracles?
Do you believe
In the impossible?
Do you believe
Sleep is a time machine?
Do you believe
In curiosity?
Do you believe
In what you cannot see?
Do you believe
Life is a lucid dream?
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you know them by heart
Life is a lucid dream
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you study the stars
And that's how you know them by heart
Life is a lucid dream[Outro]
I am a light sleeper
But I am a heavy dreamer
