Anthrax

How much does an opinion weigh?

Does it really matter what I say?

I can't be responsible

Be yourself or be a toolWho cares what you expect?

What is politically correct?

All my ideas are in bad taste

Get off my case andJudge yourself

No one elseI don't intend to offend

I just offend with my intent

Beauty's in the beholder's eye

I just like the ugly sideWho cares what you expect?

What is politically correct?

All my ideas are in bad taste

Get off my case andJudge yourself

No one elseSee things the way I do

Walk a mile in my shoes

Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me

My thoughts would drive you crazySee things the way I do

Walk a mile in my shoes

Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me

My thoughts would drive you crazyKill someone, save a life

Don't do drugs, drink all night

Worship Jesus, praise Satan

Opinions are all contradictionIt's not a case of wrong and right

You may hate what I may like

Vice versa, it's the same

Just do it, no pain, no gainWho cares what you expect?

What is politically correct?

All my ideas are in bad taste

Get off my case and Judge yourself

No one elseSee things the way I do

Walk a mile in my shoes

Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me

My thoughts would drive you crazySee things the way I do

Walk a mile in my shoes

Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me

My thoughts would drive you crazyKill someone, save a life

Don't do drugs, drink all night

Worship Jesus, praise Satan

Opinions are all contradiction
