Afterglow

Nine Lashes

Our story time is told
And I'm blinded by the afterglow
Can you hear me dear?
Now I'm thumbing through the pages
Of the beautifully romantic year

I can hear you dear
(I can hear you dear)
Cause right in front of me, you disappear
Your still vanishing
You left me here

I stand here today, so far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not...
So near to lost, but I'm not alone

Dear Daddy, don't you miss me
Cause in heavan there's no room for tears
I can feel you here
As I'm thumbing through the pages
Seems forever's just too far away

When we meet again
I'll remember when
Right in front of me, you disappeared
Your still vanishing
You left me here

I stand here today, so far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost, but I'm not...
So near to lost, but I'm not all alone

Not all alone
I'm not all alone
I'm not all alone

I stand here today, so far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost but I'm not...

I stand here today, so far from the same
It's hard to move on without you
So my God fill these spaces left in me
I'm so near to lost, but I'm not...
I'm everything but lost cause I'm not alone
