Southern Air

Yellowcard

I've watched the world go by Outside a window I still can't believe
Where I am nowIt's been forever long
Adventures come and gone
And I'm left alone
Aut not let down'Cause I have found a gravity
A voice that pulls me to my knees
Tellin' me remember where you're fromThis southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see
Canvases behind my eyes
All the colors of my lifeThis southern air is in my lungs
It's in every word I've sung
It seems the only truth I know
This will always be homeI thought about the day
When I could truly say I'm better now, well here I am
'Cause I have let this gravity grab a hold and carry me and I will not Forget where I am from
Forget where I am fromThis southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see
Canvases behind my eyes
All the colors of my lifeThis southern air is in my lungs
It's in every word I've sung
Seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
Always be home
Always be homeThe sun lays down inside the ocean, I'm right where I belong Feel the air, the salts on my skin the future's coming on
And after living through these wild years and coming out alive
I just want to lay my head here, stop running for a whileThis southern air is all I need
Breathe it in and I can see
Canvases behind my eyes
All the colors of my lifeThis southern air is in my lungs
It's in every word I've sung
Seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
Always be home
Always be home
This will always be homeThis southern air is in my lungs

It's in every word I've sung
Seems the only truth I know
This will always be home
