

Release

Sister Hazel

Here we go again
The silence between us defends each other's fear, of a broken heart the awkward dance we do the covered pain it shows through the damaging moves we made from the very start now i wont be the blame and maybe you wont feel the same (chorus) here comes a release...again so nice not to play pretend this doesn't have to be love's end its more than you'll ever know lonely eyes i see looking back at me this mirror hides the life we've never known how did we get to this?
the absence of any bliss i didn't know your heart was out on a loan its time we walked away these are the hardest things to say chorus
