Moonlight

Tribal Seeds

Weâ€™re jamming in the moonlight
Hear the sound waves by the seaside
We donâ€™t need to play for anyone
We donâ€™t need to play for anyone
Weâ€™re jamming in the moonlight
Where the waves crash by the seaside
We donâ€™t need to play for anyone
We donâ€™t need to play for anyone

I like to get a peace of mind
In my own time
So roll one up, light it up
Cuz in the meantime
The rat race is going strong
And the peopleâ€™s minds are too far gone
So we donâ€™t need to play
We donâ€™t need to play nah
We donâ€™t need to play
We donâ€™t need to play for anyone
Nah we donâ€™t need to play for anyone

Can you ease, can you ease my mind?
Healing of herb, lift me up high
Away from the city, away from the sight
Of light pollution, just clear skies tonight
Blaze up the herb and light up the world
Tonight we play for no one but the plants and creatures
I see Jah glory from
The rise of the morning sun
