One Last Dance

Wonderwall

As we lay here tonight
Please forgive me, girl, if I say
The future's not bright
But please take my hand
We'll have one last dance
In the place where we first met eyes
Holy City Zoo
I recall the name of the place
Where I first saw you
With your eyes so kind
And your smile so bright
I just wanted to take you home
Where you go, I wanna go
What you do, I wanna do
I'll be your Troy Donahue
If you'll be my Sandra Dee
It's a trivial pursuit
But I know if I fall on my heart
I'll be with you
But please understand
I am just a man
And I need you to take me home
We're together now
Wanna change my shoes
So I feel like you somehow
Need to breathe your breath
And caress your dress
I'll be with you for quite sometime
I'll take you where you wanna go
Tell me where, I wanna know
I will just go with the flow
As long as I'm there with you
Are the kids okay?
Didn't find the time
To give you a call today
But my heart's with yours
I am keeping score of the things
That I have done wrong
Another funeral

Of the people I know
I'm beginning to fade away
And I have to say
But at least today
It's beginning to get me down
But to this day, I'm loving you
We know what we wanna do
I am your Troy Donahue
And you are my Sandra Dee
Now I know you well
I still love you, adore you
I need you more than then
With your eyes still kind
And your smile still bright
I still want to take you home
And I will do all that I can
You're my woman, I'm your man
(I'm your woman, you're my man)
And if we still don't have a plan
We'll listen to Thunder Road
