Higher Love

Tyler James

Think about it, that must be a higher love
Down in the heart and in stars above
Without it life feels a waste of time
Look inside your heart I will look inside mineThings look so bad and everywhere
And this whole world once fair
We walk blind we try to see
Falling behind and what could beBring me a higher love
And this higher love I've been thinking ofWas a time we?re just singing on Facing our fears and standing out there alone
All the yearning and this swift of me
There must be someone who's feeling with meThings look so bad and everywhere
And this whole world once fair
We walk blind we try to see
Falling behind and what could beBring me a higher love
And this higher love I've been thinking ofI could let them nod up with my soul on fire
I could burn the sunlight from pure desire
Can you feel the love come over me
Can you feel how strong I could beBring me a higher love
And this higher love I've been thinking of
