Tribal Thoughts

Nap Eyes

Tribal thoughts, I'm thinking tribal thoughts
I'm drinking every thought in Like it was the first oneI hear the beat against the slow lines
The lines I wrote
I never write them down anymore fuck itWe came to the place where I had lived once
For a little while
I found my brother,
Was teaching him to smileAnd the lies that I told him
In hopes not to lose
Was only because I always choose
It's me; I, I choose
