Goldtooth

Nothingface

Reject and deny me with the face of a demon
Your bullshit can't find it's own way to light, to mouth
But still they say I should be alone
Left alone, stuck alone in this padded hell
It's me for me, to each his own, fuck that shitFeels like my soul's hard to see another way
Take my shit, my mouth is dry
Just do it my way, save his own
This feeling seem stained, live through this
But my soul's in the way, give it, say itFeel your cunt dripping, it all smells the same
The floor sure looks comfy
What a day to take away your pride
Eyes wide, mouth wider, still I know how to be alive
Feelin' fine, look so good
On your knees for me, free, sick alwaysStill they feed you
