

Solid Gold Easy Action

T. Rex

now I'm popping a few
in the morning dew
do the monkey wrench
all the birds adventures
the teenage night and the vampires are rightand I want to lay my lips on your explosive mouthpicked up Kenny at an art deco date
from tulips he's a cat
with an automated hat and I need to be free of all the fantasies I hide inand I want to lay my lips on your explosive mouthhits a shame for man too high
all the things
we do to survive
from this daynow I jump on your horse and I gallop of course
and howl like a wolf
and drink up the sky
and I beat on my chest just a punk off the ranchbut I want to lay my lips on your explosive mouthhits a shame
that I do to survive
from this day
