Samael

why so many would have to pay for just one man to stand his way why so often no one denies primacy of one over others is there not enough self-consciousness in everyone to make him real haven't we all inside of us what makes a man worth being onehow i wish that i could take you by the hand lead you through blurry views and give you access to your own selfbetween a Caesar and nothing there are plenty of ways to be life is full of differences and so should be society hope is a fuel we get for free while fear demands security so why are those two always used as if they were power toolshow i wish that i could take you by the hand lead you through blurry views and give you access to your own selfsleeping with eyes wide open while someone else is getting in charge to lead the way in his own wayhow i wish that i could take you by the hand lead you through blurry views and give you access to your own selfi wish that i could take you by the hand lead you through blurry views and give you access to your own self
