

Fuck You (Say It To Your Face)

Hyro Da Hero

Uh.

I don't like John Manning, He don't like black Women.
And Fuck Mel Gibson cause he think we rape bitches.
I can't believe today people Still got hate in em'.
Cause subconsciously equality is far from being finished.

Can't trust School, or Religion.
Cause Teachers and Preachers are tryna touch children.
They worry about the world being brain-damaged.
Only concerned with how uncomfortable they feel when my pants saggin.

Kiss My Ass. Is the message that I'm sayin.
I'm just a style cause i'm young, still educated.
But some rappers be Ignorant and still my brothers.
They just embarrass me like parties with a drunk uncle.

We want big bucks.
So much money on my mind all the time, that i'm broke but i'm still rich.
We in a world full of selfish ass hypocrites.
We love cheap labor, but complain about the immigrants.

When you rise, people wanna see you fall.
We on a planet where gravity is the law.
But i'm floatin' i'm floatin' i'm floatin'.

(You can have it all, but still have nothing at all.)
Success is so overrated! Success is so overrated!

(x2)
(Most people won't confront you)
But straight to yo face I say Fuck You!
(They won't call you a bitch.)
But Hyro Da Hero ill call you that quick.

Man I thought I would Inspire the Youth. (Yeah)
Instead they still got guns in the hallways, drugs in the classrooms.
Act like savages fighting on youtube.
And these the images of us that people view.
Movies like [] sell us out to make figures head.

And white folks sayin', ("I'm so glad i'm not a n|gger!")

Hope, Sandra Bullock really has a blind side.
She was gonna raise a black baby with a racist guy.
People scream they wanna take America Back.
Now I wonder what they mean when they say that.
White celebrities say "nigga" then apologize.
Ain't no way to cover up how you feel inside.

Scream that word as If it would make us feel bad.
Don't be mad I can say a word that you can't.
Everything people stole, Imma take.
Baby cue the music, inventions and all that!

When you rise, people wanna see you fall.
We on a planet where gravity is the law.
But i'm floatin' i'm floatin' i'm floatin'.

(You can have it all, but still have nothing at all.)
Success is so overrated! Success is so overrated!

(x2)
(Most people won't confront you)
But straight to yo face I say Fuck You!
(They won't call you a bitch.)
But Hyro Da Hero ill call you that quick.

Yeah!
(x4)
If you are the chosen, you're under hypnosis.

(x4)
You're under hypnosis.

If you are the chosen, you're under hypnosis.
