

Song For The Irrational

Matt Wertz

You say you want something rational
You say you need the cold hard facts Do you realize
How far you've strayed from truth
In your quest for
Your rational proof Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational Cause you say you want something rational
And you say you need miraculous signs Excuse me if i'm the one who's been mistaken here
But your logic seems to be a bit unclear Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational Has what I've shown slipped past your oh so blurred eyes
Has my soft touch not calmed those oh so vicious lies Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
Song for the irrational
