

Teach Him

Melanie Fiona

No one's perfect
No one's certain what life's all about
It's a door we can't figure out all alone
So we trust in who we can
Never understand why
Never good or bad
Just in-between, like every other man
So I teach him, teach him not to lie
Make him laugh until he cries
Hold him, stand by his side
Hoping he'll change his way of life
Having seen the light for many nights
Still I keep the vision of candle lights
Wanna be alone, wanna be with you
I'm so confused
So the next time we meet we'll do it again
Whatever your heart's fixing
Never good or bad
Just in-between, like every other man
So I teach him, teach him not to lie
Make him laugh until he cries
Hold him, stand by his side
Hoping he'll change his way of life
No one's perfect
No one's certain what life's all about
Sometimes it's the man to be figured out
Never good or bad, so I understand
So I teach him, teach him not to lie
Make him laugh until he cries
I'm gonna hold him, stand by his side
Hoping he'll change his way of life
Teach him, I'm gonna teach him not to lie
Make him laugh until he cries
Hold him, I'm gonna hold him, stand by his side
Hoping he'll change his way of life
Hoping he'll change his way of life
Hoping he'll change his way of life
I'm gonna teach him

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>