Euphemia

Area 11

As I looked into the burning sky, a tear forming in my eye
Memories of fallen dreams and all those that have died.
Demons are possessing me. Robbed of my eternity.
A cloud of ash that pierced the night; I feel my hate take flight.
I?m choking on my own words and I?m scared of backing down
Because the hope within us all is up in flames.
Twisted by my warring conscience, the situation?s pushing onwards.
Genocide forever taints your name.
This can?t be, was this me? I think I?ve lost control.
I caused this, I forced this, can I continue on?
I have caused this, I have forced this. I caused this, I forced this, I caused this.

(Chorus)
Mou oshimai da.
Betrayed by trust, forever left to scream.
Oh hold me closely and die in my arms, and then take this secret with you,
And then take this secret with you.

I became your puppet master, as you stared into my eyes,
Then stood and watched in horror as you ordered them to die.
This could fuel the revolution, this could be my last solution,
And all good victories come with a price.
This can?t be, was this me? I think I?ve lost control.
I caused this, I forced this, can I continue on?
I have caused this, I have forced this. I caused this, I forced this, I caused this.

(Chorus)
Mou oshimai da.
Betrayed by trust, forever left to scream.
Oh hold me closely and die in my arms, and then take this secret with you,
And then take this secret with you.

(Chorus)
Mou oshimai da.
Betrayed by trust, forever left to scream.
Oh hold me closely and die in my arms, and then take this secret with you,
And then take this secret with you. Take my secret with you.
Take my secret with you. Take my secret with you.
Just take my secret with you
