

Someone Should Tell Her

The Mavericks

Someone should tell her how much I love her
Before she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me
Ever since I broke her heart
She won't talk to me
All I need is a one last chance
To make up and say I'm sorry
Someone should tell her how much I love her
Before she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me
I've never been the kind
To get down on my knees

If she could see me now
A lonely man who's begging please
Someone should tell her how much I love her
Before she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me
Someone should tell her how much I love her
Before she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me
Maybe then she'll come back to me
Maybe then she'll come back to me
