

When You Are Near

Jeremy Camp

Theres no need to say a thing
When Im before You
In this silence
I feel refreshed with peace Break this noise that binds
The voice that tries speak
Open up my eyes to see
Your gracious sovereign reach Its hard to talk
When I feel that You are near
When all is quiet
Its the beauty that I hear This hidden place where I know that
You've calmed my fears
Yes, I know that
Youve washed my tears The seasons of change Ive faced
Have never left me wounded
Only scars of hurt
But never deeply rooted This healing I have felt
No burden can replace
Redemptive hope has been
The story of my pain Its hard to talk
When I feel that You are near
When all is quiet
Its the beauty that I hear This hidden place where I know that
You've calmed my fears
Yes, I know that
Youve washed my tears All is lost without the breath of life You give You give so much I want nothing more than You
So heres my heart, heres my heart Its hard to talk
When I feel that You are near
When all is quiet
Its the beauty that I hear This hidden place where I know that
You've calmed my fears
Yes, I know that
Youve washed my tears Yes, I know that
You've calmed my fears
Yes, I know that
Youve washed my tears
