Forgotten Past

Death

Deep in your mind there is another side
A morbid truth one cannot hide
Unimaginable gore was your past time high
To hear people scream, to watch them dieReturn back to the burial site
Face your dreams upon this night
Severed limbs not far away
Spirit past you now obeyImages of the forgotten past
Your first life revealed at last
Now you'll find to your surprise
All the corpses you left behindA place you feel you've been to before
Where life would turn right into gore
You dig deep down through the years of decay
The truth is revealed, you found you way
