

Crazy Beautiful

Ashley Parker Angel

Like a splinter in my thumb
You're not going anywhere
Not like I care 'cos I have got used to it
Refuse to quit You're like the label in my shirt
That keeps scratching at my back
Then I forget 'cos I've come immune to it
Go figure it Knew you were trouble back then
But that's what turned me on, it's all wrong Suitcase, some baggage
And a head sheet sweep down
Guess that it's crazy beautiful
Crazy beautiful You're like the tattoo lying on the back door
Regret smashing her fist into the wall
Crazy beautiful
She's worth it all She leaves the ashtray on the bed
She don't sense any thoughts in her head
She just has to get them out
Can't shut her mouth She's like a song that's in my brain
But every other lyric says my name
And I just can't turn it off
Can't get enough Knew you were trouble back then
But that's what turned me on, it's all wrong Suitcase, some baggage
And a head sheet sweep down
Guess that it's crazy beautiful
Crazy beautiful You're like the tattoo lying on the back door
Regret smashing her fist into the wall
Crazy beautiful Sometimes something that is not perfect
Isn't being what you want
Sometimes she lets me into places
Where her demons come to haunt She's like an angel that's corrupted
And I'm hanging on to her Suitcase, some baggage and a head sheet
Sweep down, guess that it's crazy beautiful
Crazy beautiful You're like the tattoo lying on the back door
Regret smashing her fist into the wall
Crazy beautiful
(She's got a) Suitcase, some baggage and a head sheet
Sweep down, guess that it's crazy beautiful
Crazy beautiful You're like the tattoo lying on the back door
Regret smashing her fist into the wall
Crazy beautiful

She's worth it all
