

Eaten By The Monster Of Love

Sparks

Well, it's Saturday night and I'm still free
And I ain't never gonna be Eaten by the monster of love It's hard to fight it off much more
I hear it drooling by the door
Eaten by the monster of love It ain't a pretty sight to see the way it leaves 'em
It chews them up and spits out creatures with those Goo-gooy-ey eyes
Sick sickly smiles
It just isn't right And my father said "don't worry, son"
But look at him, he should have run
Eaten by the monster of love Well, it's worse than war, it's worse than death
There ain't too many left who ain't been Eaten by the monster of love Buy a dog and that might help
Sometimes, though, a dog gets grabbed and Eaten by the monster of love Eaten by the monster of love
Let it huff, let it puff
Eaten by the monster of love
I hate to gripe, but I just ain't the type (Don't let it get me, don't let it get me, etc.) I know some really good, good people
Overcome, and piece by piece they were
Eaten by the monster of love Sometimes it takes a nip at me
But I'm too quick to ever be
Eaten by the monster of love
