

Break into Your Heart

Iggy Pop

I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow till I see where you begin
Times so tired, closing in
Four more hours to go
When the times to spin
I'm getting in
Gonna be in time
I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow till I see where you begin
Let me in, this mabling
But you're never gonna grow
Your heart is buried underneath
Mountains copped with soap
I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow till I see where you begin
[guitars break] Break them all
Take them all
Fake them all
Steal them all
Fail them all
Touch them all
Break them all
Break them
I'm gonna break into your heart (x4)
Till it all comes crashing down
[guitars break] I'm gonna break into your heart
I'm gonna crawl under your skin
I'm gonna break into your heart
And follow till I get under your skin
And the wall comes tumbling down
And you finally let me in
I break into your
