No Devotion

Katatonia

I've turned down all devotion
I'm so far from being here
Can't bring forth more power
Than I have already doneTonight I'm trying
And I see all dreading meBut then I lose again
All hope of being someone
Oh this lack of devotion
Will put me to an endTonight I'm trying
And I see all dreading meSo if you wanna save me
And stop me when I run
Just tell me that I'll have now
A day less to live when I'm doneI've turned down all devotion
I'm so far from being here
Can't bring forth more power
Than I have already doneTonight I'm trying
And I see all dreading meBut then I lose again
All hope of being someone
Oh this lack of devotion
Will put me to an endTonight I'm trying
