Violet

Kelly Jones

There is a killer on the loose
More blood on the streets
Violet sells her body
To make money to eatWell, Violet's just a girl
And she ran away from home
She fell out with her daddy
And now she's living all aloneViolet, oh, Violet
Who done it?
Oh, VioletAt the end of the night
Violet walks the streets
She picks up all the guys
To make her ends meetSaturday came around
And the killer made his make
She got into his car
Now the cops are dragging the lakeViolet, oh, Violet
Who done it?
Oh, VioletOh, Violet
Who Done it?
Oh, Violet, oh no
