

Lucky #13

Nonpoint

Lucky number
Lucky number
Lucky number 13, baby Lucky number
Lucky number
Lucky number 13, baby Hell-raising since I was just a baby
Got the brain, but still a little crazy
Genius on the hood
But a psycho at the wheel
Driving like a maniac
Wicked mass appeal
Yeah, I get looks from the crooked
They don't know how the book ends
Definitely need to get to chapter two
So take your looks and comments
This is what I'm made of
Torn jeans, tattoos and stray child terror Lucky number 13, baby
From the day that I was born
Lucky number 13, baby
Do your worst and give me more I'm a black Cadillac
Red interior
Headlights
Chrome pipes
And I'm out of control
Got a few bullets
So I know
When things are gonna get a little serious
Yeah, I'm in trouble all the time
But my time's mine to get in trouble with
And you could tell me another hundred times to Still not gonna change my direction just to spite you Lucky number 13, baby
From the day that I was born
Lucky number 13, baby
Do your worst and give me more Lucky number 13, baby
Whoa!
Lucky number 13, baby
Whoa! From the day that I was born
Do your worst and give me more
From the day that I was born
Do your worst and give me more

And give me more
