You Win

Cats On Trees

The words never done a much I'm sorry
Never play again this memories, you see
Don't want to see you live to far, can you please take homeYou want to set this earthling swim never come to the moon
I want to be the only one, I want that sentence to be true
Can you please take homeI take the guilt and through away the shadow's history there on my way
And a back you please, you have to stay, you win
I take the guilt and through away the shadow's history there on my way
You burn my head I lost on the south
You have to forget yourself
I have to forget your sin
What can I do, It's my fault
You have to forget yourself
I have to forget your sin
What can I do, It's a lifeAll the things we have done, are you gonna let them down?
I want to be the only one, I want that sentence to be true
Can you please take home
I take the guilt and through away the shadow's history there on my way
And a back you please, you have to stay, you win
I take the guilt and through away the shadow's history there on my way
You burn my head I lost on the south
You have to forget yourself
I have to forget your sin
What can I do, It's my fault
You have to forget yourself
I have to forget your sin
What can I do, It's a lifex 2
