

Real Good Man

Tim McGraw

Girl, you've never known no one like me
Up there in your high society
They might tell you I'm no good
Girl, they need to understand just who I am I may be a real bad boy
But baby, I'm a real good man I may drink too much and play too loud
Hang out with a rough and rowdy crowd
That don't mean I don't respect
My mama or my Uncle Sam, yes sir, yes ma'am I may be a real bad boy
But baby, I'm a real good man I might have a reckless streak
At least a country mile wide
If you're gonna run with me
It's gonna be a wild ride When it comes to lovin' you
I've got velvet hands
I'll show you how a real bad boy
Can be a real good man
Here we go I'll take all the good times I can get
I'm too young for growing up just yet
Ain't much I can promise you
Except to do the best I can, I'll be damned I may be a real bad boy
But baby, I'm a real good man
I may be a real bad boy
Oh but baby, I'm a real good man, yes, I am

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>