Angels On High

Handsome Devil

Who's that Singing? Screaming tonight,
It must be the Angels On High,
What's that voice speaking to me?
It sounds like an old friend,
Well It's soothing and moving,
come to save me again,
Well I don't want to be desperately in need, though here I am,
bound for hell, I sabotage myself,
I could use a hand,
Who's that Singing? Screaming tonight,
It must be the Angels On High,
Two steps from the move,
you wait for me,
smiling and crying,
you pray for me,

now all I really want is to understand just who I am,
why can't I be satisfied?
It's in my hands,
Who's that Singing? Screaming tonight,
It must be the Angels On High, [x2]Nobody knows where you are,
I swear to God I'll keep you in my heart always.
Who's that Singing? Screaming tonight,
It must be the Angels On High,
[x2]Who's that Singing?
