Greenleaf

I've been gone so long
I travel then carry in my worn out load
And I'll laugh and lie
Afraid to show my demons in my down
You say I talk to gods
That I log the stories
And bury them within my mind
Though I know they're fake
The truth is bitter and will haunt me towards my grave
And I've been gone so long
And all the memories that I had of you is gone
Let me in, I'll change
Still I wonder why I wasted all my days
Signs on the water
That flickering light into my mind tonight
Signs on the water
Throughout the haze, your loving grace tonight
Signs on the water
Some days turn down
And here I run alone
Signs on the water
The weary seal had to heal alone
Heading for that far away lights
And I've been gone so long
Heading for something new mightier
I've been gone so long
And although I'm still so tired
And the road does seem so long
I follow one direction
And I've been gone so long
