

Trimmed and Burning

Built to Spill

took it all and take it overtaking as much as you can see i can almost think about it but i cant arrange for you to see yeah didnt know what im afraid of i can learn it from a dream theres a light that never goes out burning a hole inside of me yeah keep your lamps all trimmed and burning might be alarmed with what you see i agreed to always love you but never enough to set you free
