Your Highness

Moran Levi

You're highness
Lyrics by Moran Levi Music by Boris Musichuk

Youâ€™re the king of the world
Better than all boys and girls
Youâ€™re a woman, youâ€™re old
Once youâ€™re weak, than youâ€™re strong

You're everything you want
My love, again you hurt
Your own things, your mother's heart
Cause once again the madness starts

If I could help you to see
You're highness
If I could give you normal life
But you are strong now

You are the most loving baby
The greatest of all maybe
You are a pure soul on earth
And no one can match you worth

You're everything you want
My love, again you hurt
Your own things, your mother's heart
Cause once again the madness starts

He himself doesnâ€™t understand his struggles
I wonder how his little body handles this.
And I wish I could be his angel
Cause his smile is what I miss
