

Heaven or Las Vegas

Cocteau Twins

Pull him away
Jealous so with me
Go there for new
For new things there Singing of a famous street
I want to love, I've all the wrong glory
But is it Heaven or Las Vegas?
But you're much more brighter than the sun is to me He's a hustler
It's a role he'll never make suit
Hang on to this
Stay and stay and fail and fail Pull him away
Jealous so with me
Go there for new
For new things there Singing of a famous street
I want to love, I've all the wrong glory
But is it Heaven or Las Vegas?
But you're much more brighter than the sun is to me Reaching this itch in my soul
Is like any good playing card
Must be why I'm thinking of Las Vegas
Why, it's more brighter than the sun is to me Carnivals are bluster loud
I'm dizzy so I go, under the 'Big Dipper'
Come fantasy for a carnival
How fitting before a wedding Singing of a famous street
I want to love, I've all the wrong glory
But is it Heaven or Las Vegas?
But you're much more brighter than the sun is to me Reaching this itch in my soul
Is like any good playing card
Must be why I'm thinking of Las Vegas
Why, it's more brighter than the sun is to me Maybe then you will swear
This is hardly personal
I suspect I'm singing to a tune
And still find that beats singing to your soon

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>