

Mussolini Mosh

Gama Bomb

Coming over here and taking our jobs, no one really believes that shit
Exploiting indecision to spread their crap, trying to look every bit too legit to quit
But we know a brick through the window in the middle of the night is their real idea of fun
We'll throw a fit before we submit to scum

Heil and dry
No shelter for you here
BNP, all Nazis
In the crosshairs, you know we're sincere when we declare
Your feet will dance on air
Your slippery slope to genocide
We know your names, we won't let it slide
Nazis? Fuck 'em!
