Elevate My Mind

Stereo MC's

I want to go higher (x3)
I want to go higher (higher baby) (x2)If I ever get down in the dumps
Short of a dollar nothin change for months
It seems to rain about every day
And all the news seems kinda grey
Its no illusion call it reality
So I release more charge from my battery
We can rise death defy gravity
Bring about a sense of personality
So as I walk I look around
See some go up , some go down
There goes the mayor his nose is brown
Guess how he get to wear his crown
But his hands are shaking the walls are breakin
And one day they will all fall down
Sometimes its better that way
Makin space for a some dayWe're on the ground floor got lots to learn Slip to the basement and you burn
First floor and you start to fall
Out the bed clothes answer the door
On the second I comprehend
Positive waves are what I send Third floor and you start to flow
Tell me now where d'ya want to go(higher baby)
I want to go higher (higher baby)
Were'd you want to go?
I want to go higher (higher baby)
I want to go higher (higher baby)So tell me baby kinda shakey
We ain't been too friendly lately
Things sometimes turn out that way
And that is all that you got to say
Well that's ok cause time can soothe
Like a dentist pulls out a tooth
As each new day will bring a new face how can I make my rhyme go someplaceFirst of all she ask for more
I said sure I don't mind at all
The waters deep but I'm walking tall
It don't matter if you're rich or poor ain't here to score just raise the floor

Maximum vibes what I'm aiming for
I do my war dance back to the wall
Just returning my native callAnd that's the way we're getting by ya
Always keeping you on the wire
Takin you higher - call me a liar
But you won't cause you're feeling inspired Work we're going to , jerk you're all through there's no way you'll stop my break through Two ways to do it , get in or get out
Elevate yourself don't hang about
So wherever lies you're latitude
Wherever you are we're gaining altitude
In all directions starting to climb
So come on girl - elevate my mindI want to go higher (elevate my mind)
I want to go higher (higher baby)
(Let it reach ya) I want to go higher (higher baby)
(Elevate my mind) I want to go higher (higher baby)I want to go higher (x3)
