

Still Metal

Ahola

When you are young you have a need to belong for everyone there is a song in my heart and in my soul I felt the force of the sound unknown
It lies there still deep within no matter what song I will sing
It altered direction of life It follows me 'til the day I die
I'm Still Metal, We're Still Metal We're all metal in our hearts
What goes around will come around
You can't deny that inner sound
The fundamental piece of your soul
Defines who you are and where do you go
The knowledge of Dragons and Kings
The Horrors and Demons with wings
It lies there yet deep within
No matter what song I ever sing
I'm Still Metal, We're Still Metal We're all metal in our hearts
I'm Still Metal, We're Still Metal We're all metal in our hearts
I'm Still Metal, We're Still Metal We're all metal in our hearts
I'm Still Metal, We're Still Metal We're all metal in our hearts
