

Lemuria

Kenny Barron

In the ocean, deep down
Under raging waves, wrapped in memories
You'll find wrecks of stately ships, they all went astray
Captain, did you find Land of Mu, Eldorado for the seaman?
Or did you sink in dreams and lose your ship
In the Sirens' symphony? When the sailman's sailing away
He shows that the dream of Lemuria is true
A land lost he will find again
Hear the call from the depth of the Anemone song
Do you dare to enter the ship?
Hear the call from below of an underwater world
Land of Mu is close to the stars
In the arms of the sea you will live as hypnotized
Call of Narayana, the seven-headed on Lemuria, rise!
When the sailman's sailing away
He shows that the dream of Lemuria is true
A land lost he will find again
Hear the call from the depth of the Anemone song
Do you dare to enter the ship?
Hear the call from below of an underwater world
Land of Mu is close to the stars
In the arms of the sea you will live as hypnotized
