

Brand New Man

Seventh Day Slumber

A morning rainbow fills the sky, I think Im dead
But I know Im not dead yet
Ive been missing You, Youve been here all along
I guess sometimes I just forget There was comfort in Your breath
You made me believe that life was worth it Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same
Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same I remember the day that I met You
The emptiness I had could fill a mountain
And I believed it was true
My pain would never go away But there was comfort in Your breath
You made me believe that life was worth it Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same
Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same And Im not looking back
My past is far behind me, yeah
Im stronger every day
Youve made me a brand new man And Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same
And Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same
Im a brand new man
And I will never be the same
