

Faithful

Babyface

You've been hangin' out without your girlfriends
And they've been hangin' out at all the clubs
And you've been makin' eyes at all their boyfriends
Have I complained? Not even once
So, tell me how can you expect me to be cool
While you're playin' silly games with my love
Darlin' I won't accept you putting blame on me
You know that I'm the innocent one, yea
Now haven't I been faithful, haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful, hey what's a guy to do?
Now haven't I been faithful, haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful, hey what's a guy to do?
You've been talking to your ex girlfriends
They're always calling you up on the phone
Yet you insist they really don't mean nothin'
Then tell me why can't you just leave them alone?
So, tell me how can you expect me to be true
While you're playing silly games with my heart
Darlin' I won't accept you puttin' blame on me
You know that I'm the innocent one
Now haven't I been faithful and haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful, what's a girl to do?
Now haven't I been faithful and haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful, what's a guy to do?
Girl, I'm giving all I have
Just to prove my love is cool
Boy, I'm giving all my love
So that you will know my love is true
Faithful, true, faithful, so faithful
Now haven't I been faithful and haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful
What's a girl to do? What's a guy to do?
Now haven't I been faithful and haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful
What's a girl to do? What's a guy gonna do?
Now haven't I been faithful and
Haven't I been true
But you're not even grateful
What's a girl to do? What is a guy to do?
Faithful, true, faithful
