Soon Soon

Tom Rosenthal

Today was just a day and you dealt with it okay but tomorrow is a boy who needs to run.You've seen it all before and you've knocked on all the doors but tomorrow is a funny looking one.Oh everything is about to change but I say bring it closer to meOh it's coming soon but like the spinning of the moon in truth it is already happening.Think back to the start when we sang with bolder hearts and the darkness wasn't even bothering.Oh everything is about to change but I say bring it closer to meBring the storms and the blows and everything it knows and I say bring it closer to meSoon soon Soon soonHope it was bird that flew til it was heard. and landed in a corner of a mind.Oh I'll get what I'll get,
and we ain't seen nothing yet, and no one has ever glanced the other side.Oh everything is about to change but I say bring it closer to me.Bring the time and the space, and the lost forgotten place.
and I say bring it closer to meToday was just a day
but tomorrow is a boy who needs to run.Oh everything is about to change but I say bring it closer to me.
