Way Too Long

Lee DeWyze

Hello
I have something to say
Let's just pretend that I haven't been feeling this way Cause I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
Living this way
So stay
Right where you are
Cause I'll see the future and I know that it's gone too far
Don't
Make me decide
See, right now I'm fighting
I'm not sure my thinking is right
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
Living this way
I
Think I figured it out
What a beautiful ending to something I can't live without
So take
All the time that you need
Cause I've begged and I've promised
I've loved and I've hated you, see
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
Living this way
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
Living this way
Hello
I have something to say
And I can't pretend that I haven't been feeling this way
Cause I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
I have spent way too long
Living this way
