

If There Was a Love

Thief

If there was a love inside me
I wouldn't need no one to guide me
Out of this grey, dying hell

If I wouldn't have to fight me
If there was something good inside me
If it wasn't me who i sell

To get out, to be free
Should I leave forever?
To get out, to be free
Should I leave forever

If I only had a reason
Would I try another season
To live irrelevantly, alone

If I was somebody different
Would it make a major difference
Or would I still want to be a stone?

To get out, to be free
Should I leave forever?
To get out, to be free
Should I leave forever

Facing the neon signs
I'm trying to get outside
