To Let Me Go

Jerry Leger

The nights
Sad and lonely
Oh, she's gone without a warning
It takes a bad hearted woman
To let me go, to let me go
To let me go this way
I've been a lie
I've been better
She broke my mind
How could I have let her
It takes a bad hearted woman
To let me go, to let me go
To let me go this way
Thinking of you giving all your love
Gives me a false security
Our home goes up in flames
And you just leave me in it
How could you, babe?
Your kindness is out the window
When I was loving you
You stood like a scarecrow
It takes a bad hearted woman
To let me go, to let me go
To let me go this way
