

East to the west (feat. LZ Love)

Michael Franti & Spearhead

Woo-hoo! To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop One to creation, one to the sun
One to the mornin', one to the one
One to the air and the freshness we breathe an
One to the force of the change in the seasons One to the mother from which all things come
One to the daughters and one to the sons
One to the Father who helps us believe that Nothin's ever gonna harm you see an One to the soldier who walks city streets an
One to the soldier who fights overseas an
One to the man who gets down on his knees an Prays for god and send protection please an To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop One to the woman one to the man
One to the culture from the time when it began
One to destruction one to birth
One to the people who still fight for the earth One to the people who suffer for the needs and
One to the rebels who love rockin' to the beats an
One to the healer who fights our disease and
One to the Lorax who speaks for the trees 'Cause no amount of money and no amount of man
Can bring back to life what's gone when it's done and
One to the people who rise with the sun and
One to the people who sleep when it's down 'cause To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop This whole thing seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turnin' around
This whole thing seems upside down

The whole wide world keeps turnin' around
Life is too short to make just one decision
Musics to large for just one station
Love is to big for just one nation and
God is to big for just one religion
One to the practice of bein' in the flow and
One to the tears of the things we let go and
One to the moment we live in right now and
One to the East West North and South
To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop
To the East to the West
To the North and South
To the East to the West
One love people never gonna stop
Sing! This whole thing seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turnin' around
This whole thing seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turnin' around
This whole things Hip-Hoppers seems upside down
The whole Punk Rockers wide world keeps turnin' around
This woodstockers and loose rockers whole things seems upside down
The whole wide world keeps turnin' around
