

War of Kings

Europe

[Verse 1]

I am coming from the edge of madness
A Northern mourns the world of men
Gonna drive them into exile
Or never let them breathe again[Chorus]
On that night under the raging Northern sky
The seeds of legend lie
Swollen almost to a man
The War of Kings began[Verse 2]
In a land thrown into darkness
An army would arise
The heathens died laughing
At the kings bent his bone high[Chorus]
On that night under the raging Northern sky
The seeds of legend lie
Swollen almost to a man
The War of Kings began[Chorus]
On that night under the raging Northern sky
The seeds of legend lie
Swollen almost to a man
The War of Kings began
The War of Kings began
The War of Kings began
