

Given More Time

Vince Gill

It's been a long day
Tell me how you've been?
Sorry, it's so late
Here we go again
We're sitting here together
Your hand in mine
I could stay here forever
Given more time Given more time to laugh and dance
Given more time to have the chance
To show you this is where, I want to be
That old clock up on the wall
It don't even care at all
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me Honey, how was your day?
Did you spend it on the run?
I know the kids are okay
Thanks for getting things done
In a few more hours
The sun's gonna shine
I wish, I had the power
To be given more time Given more time to laugh and dance
Given more time to have the chance
To show you this is where I want to be
That old clock up on the wall
It don't even care at all
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me That old clock up on the wall
It don't even care at all
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me Given more time to laugh and dance
But that old clock up on the wall
It don't even care at all
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me Yeah
Given more time to laugh and dance
More time to have the chance
To show you this where, I want to be

Oh, that old clock up on the wall
It don't even care at all
Lord, I wish, I was given more time
For you and me
